The President's Corner

Dear Members,

What a wonderful speaker we had at the February luncheon. Hats off to Rose Safran. I'm sorry she wasn't there to see the fruits of her labor. Thomas Weisshaus spoke about his book dealing with being a survivor and not a victim. He was a teenager in Budapest during the Nazi Occupation, made it to America to become an English teacher graduating from Yale eventually. What a brave man, almost an agent 007, James Bond if you ask me. He shared how a Swedish diplomat, Raoul Wallenberg, saved his family's life by handing out fake Swedish passports. It made me think how we have saved many women and children's lives as an organization started by a Swedish woman Anna Kristina Sawtelle in 1992. He talked about Tikun Olam, a Hebrew word for healing the world.

Now, that's what we do heal the world and we are so proud of that. Are we heroines, guardians, or healers? We are givers and benevolent souls. How proud it is for me to be a part of such endless giving. Please join us in our wonderful and new activities this year. As I said the happiest people are those contributing their time and efforts to attend or work at functions. We truly have found the fountain of youth when we give and get the respect so well deserved. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for a second wonderful year.

In sisterhood, Ellen

The Board strongly encourages members to attend the monthly meetings, which are integral to IWCNE. Luncheons promote friendship, introduce new members, provide information about club activities as well as furthering our mission of understanding the diversity of cultures in our country and throughout the world. It is also your opportunity to invite friends who can learn about the club and its various programs and projects.

From the Founders Pen

It is 1980 I am sitting at a swimming pool in Douala, Cameroon, West Africa, talking to a French lady who had just arrived in town and didn't know anyone. I told her about the International Women's Club I had founded and what a great success we were having. She sounded very interested and then mentioned that she had just arrived from Tripoli, Libya but the International Women's Club there had a very strange policy, only two women from each country and its ambassador's wife could be members, which made for a long, long waiting list. I told her that I started that Libyan Club in 1963 and set those rules as most events were held in private homes and we could only house so many. The bottom line, I tell people now, do not make a Club's rules so cut in stone, that they cannot be amended if the current club members agree to change them.
