Message from the President

Please consider:

Once more our club has presented a late spring fashion show that has been declared a success! Congratulations to Lee Regan-Jacks and her hard working committee. Cheers for what you've accomplished.

As you know IWCNE has many dedicated members who worked quietly for months in advance of all fund raisers. You don't hear that much about what's happening behind the scenes, but when the big day arrives, their tireless energetic effort is evident and, once again, our charities will benefit.

We can't accomplish all of this without you, our members. We always need your help. We need people to help physically as well as your new ideas for fund raising activities. We welcome your suggestions. Please remember, though, the way these ideas must be presented. Contact the activities director and the club president who will then present your suggestions to the board. If the project can be done we'll most likely ask you to be part of the group doing it and we'll do our best to make it fun for you—just give us a chance!

Esperanza Academy

IWCNE Charity Recipient

Esperanza Academy, School of Hope, will receive our major charity grant for 2009. This school serves 80 economically disadvantaged girls, grades 5-8, in Lawrence, MA, one of the poorest cities in Massachusetts. Girls come from homes where the median annual family income is less than 60% of the statewide average, and they are chosen by lottery, reserving 20% of openings for "at risk" referrals by the MA Department of Social Services.

The girls attend school 11 hours a day, including music, art, sports, and other special interest activities. The school also finds summer camps and scholarships for their students to enrich their education. Following 8th grade, they find further educational opportunities for their graduates in private high schools. Each girl has mentors who will follow her all the way through college, and they do plan to go to college! Our donation will help them expand their counseling program.

Statistics on the progress students have made at Esperanza are very impressive, but it was meeting some of the girls at our interview with Laurie Bottiger, head of school, that made our decision easy. These young women are bright, well mannered, and articulate, and they are focused on goals for education and careers in the bright future they expect.

A relative of each girl is required to volunteer at least 2 hours a week, and they do all of the supportive work in the school. Waleska Caceres and Angeline Garcia, who have girls in the school, attended our Fashion Show. Waleska coordinates the volunteer program, and Angeline teaches Spanish. Members enjoyed talking with them, and we're all cordially invited to visit the school when they open in the fall.

Three Cheers for America 2009

Fashion Show

Three Cheers for America was a fine American style fashion show with its red, white, and blue theme. From the color guard, to the table decorations and floral pieces, to the patriotic quilt crafted by Betty McPhee, it was both colorful and festive. Music for the event was provided by Ray DeMarco, pianist, and Lee Griffin, vocalist.

Fashions from Saco Bay Classics ranged from the casual to formal, and member models looked wonderful as they moved through the crowd. They all seemed to enjoy their role, and the 96 members and guests in attendance rewarded them with frequent applause. Thank you all for your participation.

Because of your support we are able to assist our chosen charities. Our treasurer is gathering a financial total and will give us a report of this event at a future meeting. There were several donations along with over $1,400 realized from our raffles. The fashion show committee and I hope that you as members of this unique organization will participate in all of our fund raisers, and that you will present your ideas for future events. All suggestions are most welcomed.
